Miami's hometown professional symphony, MISO has been enriching audiences with performances throughout South Florida for a quarter century, developing a distinct musical voice while raising the artistic level of the community. With national and World Premieres becoming more common, MISO is a source of growing local pride and support. The not-for-profit Symphony conducts arts and education programs for students in Miami-Dade Public School System and provides low- or no-cost tickets to students, senior citizens, first responders, active military and veterans in South Florida.
